

ULI Seattle

The Urban Land Institute Seattle District Council Presents

“Dollars and Sense: How to Finance Quality Growth”

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 2007

Compact developments sometimes present challenges in securing financing.

Join us at this forum as we reveal recommendations for both the private and public sectors – how developers can finance complex projects under current regulatory schemes, and what local governments can do to encourage innovative projects.

HealthScape is a King County initiative to improve community design for health and the environment. Research from Phase I indicated that land use patterns and transportation investments can play key roles in making communities healthier. In Phase II, the County is developing tools that will help communities make investments to promote individual health and reduce global warming.

ULI's mission is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide.

Keynote Speaker:

Christopher Leinberger, Founding Partner, Arcadia Land Company; Visiting Fellow, The Brookings Institution.

Regional panelists include private and public sector leaders.
